

---

Sophia ZUJEWSKI*ZUJEWSKI, Sophia Beloblosky

Sophia Beloblosky Zujewski, 94, of Willington, formerly of Trumbull, died peacefully at home on Tuesday (March 13, 2012). Born in Bridgeport, she was the daughter of the late Roman Beloblosky and Alexandria Klinevich. She was predeceased by her husband of 63 years to Vincent Zujewski, her brother Alexander Beloblosky, an Aunt Olga Klinevich Beloblosky, a brother-in-law Boleslaw Zujewski. Sophia is survived by her four children Anastasia Frigon and her husband Raymond of Willington, Janet Giuliano of Cromwell, Vincent Zujewski Jr. and his wife Carol of Andover, Alexander Zujewski of Trumbull; nine grandchildren; sisters-in-law Frances Zujewski of Monroe, and Josephine Beloblosky of Stratford; two cousins Lydia Tymoszuk and Nina Beloblosky.

Friends are invited to attend funeral services on Friday at 1 p.m. in the funeral home with Fr. Steven Belonik officiating followed by interment in St. John's Cemetery, Stratford. Calling hours on Friday after 12 noon in the Commerce Hill Funeral Home, 4798 Main St., Bridgeport (on the Trumbull line) For online condolences, to light a virtual candle, share pictures and stories visit us at commercehillfh.com.

Vechnaya Pamyat.

Published in The Hartford Courant on March 15, 2012

---