

Norma Frigon

1932 - 2023

Norma H. Frigon, 90, of Enfield, beloved wife of the late William F. (Bill) Frigon, entered into eternal peace Saturday Jan. 21, 2023 at Johnson Memorial Medical Center in Stafford Springs, the same hospital where she was born May 4, 1932.

She was the daughter of the late Ralph and Helen (Tadler) Smith, and was raised in Stafford Springs before moving to Enfield where she and Bill raised their family. She was formerly employed at The Travelers Insurance Co. as a Key punch Operator, and later joined Casual Corner in Enfield until her retirement. Having lived in Enfield for most of her life, she was a communicant of Holy Family Church of St. Jeanne Jugan Parish. Norma took great pride in caring for her home and her family. She also enjoyed tending to her flowers, occasional trips to the casino, summer vacations at the beach and numerous trips to Bermuda with her husband. Her family was most important to her as she celebrated many holidays at her home cherishing the many wonderful memories together.

She is survived by her two daughters, Denise Katilus and her husband Paul of Enfield, Patricia Gelinias of Springfield, five grandchildren and their families, Lynanne Gelinias and her partner Andrew Kratzenberg, Matthew Katilus and his wife Kelly and their children Sam and Whitney, William Gelinias and his wife Elizabeth and their children Ivy, Theo, and Faye, Jonathan Caruso and his wife Paige and their children Harry and Sadie, Nicholas Caruso and Derick's second wife Teresa Caruso.

She also leaves several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She was most grateful for the care she received from her friend Gertrude Pellrine.

In addition to her husband, Norma was predeceased by a daughter, Kathleen Caruso, two sons-in-law, Paul Gelinias and Derick Caruso, a great grandson Travis Caruso, a sister, Carol Smith Lacker, a brother-in-law, Joe Lacker, and a dear friend William Christensen.
