“ Dear Paula -

I am so sorry for your loss. Aunt Judy was a wonderful woman and auntie. I remember (and can here in my mind now) her very distinctive laughter--she had a wicked sense of humor and found enjoyment in everyday life. Judy was so vibrant and bubbly and fun to be around. We had the distinct pleasure of spending so much time with the Norris family while growing up; those were truly some of the best of times in my life. Judy spoke to mom while she was dying and made the long trip out for her funeral. All the Kaiser kids so much appreciated that.... The world has lost a loving, beautiful human being.

“ Dear Paula,

When I heard of your mother's death I was overwhelmed by all the memories. I think my parents were the happiest when your parents came over to play the marble game and cards. I remember all the laughter and hooting from the kitchen table while you, Marilyn and I were running around and having a great time. Your mother brought joy to this world and I was truly blessed to have known her.

Love,
Jean

“ Paula,

Sending you our love and deepest sympathy.

So glad we had our visit with Aunt Judy when she came to Midland with Phil and Shirley.

Dad loved seeing her. Judy told us many stories of her "grands" and dearly loved all of you. Judy loved laughter and had a great faith in God. I faxed to Nicholes a poem for you "I Am Still Near" that helped comfort us when we lost our mom.

I hope it helps comfort you also. Judy was a beloved sister and aunt. We will dearly miss her.

Love,
Victor and Barbara Frigon's family
