
Claire A. Doucet

Claire A. Doucet, 86, of Inverness, Fla., passed away Sunday, June 17, 2012, under the care of Woodland Terrace and Hospice of Citrus County.

She was born Oct. 14, 1925, in Montreal, Canada, to the late Alexander and Alma (Robitaille) Frigon. Claire was a renowned hairdresser who served Pat Nixon, President Richard Nixon's wife, as well as the Miss Universe pageants in Miami Beach. She arrived in the area in 2000, coming from Miami, and was a Catholic.

She is survived by her loving husband of 40 years, Al Doucet of Inverness; two sons, William (Emily) Antonen of Inverness and Edwin Antonen of Miami; and two grandchildren, Jessica and Kirsten, both attending USF.

The family has requested donations be made to Hospice of Citrus County, P.O. Box 641270, Beverly Hills, FL 34465. Chas. E. Davis Funeral Home with Crematory is in charge of arrangements.
