Edna E. Frigon

Edna E. Frigon, 83, of Court Street, Keene, died Oct. 25, 2014, at Genesis Keene Center, after a brief illness.

She was born in Marlborough Feb. 6, 1931, daughter of George and Corrine (Ouelette) Beauregard. She grew up in Marlborough, and was a graduate of Marlborough High School.

Mrs. Frigon's greatest passion in life was her family. She took great pride in raising her four children, as well as maintaining her home, and cooking and baking wonderful treats for all to enjoy. She was an accomplished seamstress, and she also enjoyed gardening. She enjoyed her large circle of friends, all of whom she considered as family, welcoming them into her home for many special occasions.

Survivors include two children, Eileen Frigon of Keene and Roger Frigon and his wife, Susan, of Chesterfield, Mass.; daughter-in-law, Terri Frigon of Harrisville and Moody Beach, Maine; sister, Eva Wilcox of Las Cruces, N.M.; sister-in-law, Lucille Frechette of Seminole, Fla.; and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

Her husband of 52 years, Joseph L. Frigon, died in 2002. Her daughter Paula Frigon, son Joe Frigon and nine brothers and sisters, Ernest Beauregard, Raymond Beauregard, Mildred Croteau, Beatrice LaBrie, Albert Beauregard, Norman Beauregard, Rita Way, Leonard Beauregard and Mitchell Beauregard, also died earlier.

Funeral services will be private. Foley Funeral Home of Keene is assisting the family with arrangements (www.foleyfuneralhome.com).

For those who wish, donations may be made in Mrs. Frigon's memory to a charity of one's choice.
