FRIGON, Charles Hilaire Joseph March 4, 1924 - December 19, 2004 Charles (Chuck Sr.) passed away peacefully after a lengthy illness. He is survived by his loving wife, Janette, six children, their spouses, and 11 grandchildren: Charles (Cynthia), Paula and Denis; Jude (Kathy), Robert, Dana and Jes; Anthony (Wai Wai), Pierre and Natalie; Marianne (Marvin), Carston, Marcus and Edan; Deborah (John); Christopher (Carolyn) and Matthew. Charles was predeceased by his daughter Jennifer. Charles was the second of 18 children born to his loving parents, Violetta and Pierre Frigon. He is survived by four brothers and five sisters and their spouses: Gerard (Jean), Paul (Gloria), Robert (Diane), Peter (Maxine), Marguerite (Art); Roseanna (Harvey), Therese (Leonard), Jeannette (Ron) and Lorette (Paul). He was predeceased by four brothers and four sisters: Romeo, Henri, Roch and Lucien, Dolores, Gertrude, Juliette and Florence. Charles is survived by a loving sister-in-law, Florence (Henri), and a loving brother-in-law, Marcel (Florence), as well as many nieces, nephews, grand-nieces and grand-nephews. In addition to love and devotion to his family, Charles had love for his community. He was active in Catholic parishes throughout his life, and leaves many friends in these communities. Charles was a long-time member of the Knights of Columbus. His activities with the Knights included fund raising for charity as well as coaching hockey. Charles was active in the construction industry for most of his working life, interrupted only by his military service. He leaves many friends and associates from his working life. A Private Funeral service was held December 23, 2004 at Connelly-McKinley Funeral Home. Thank you to Father Jim Holland of Sacred Heart Parish. Interment followed at Holy Cross Cemetary. The family wishes to thank Dr. T. F. Chiam, Sister Norma and all the staff at Capital Care Grandview for their kindness and care of Charles. The family also expresses thanks to Anthony, Wai Wai and their young son Pierre, Paul and Gloria, and Charles (Chuck Jr.) for their loving care and support of Charles. Special Prayers and intentions were recently offered at Masses attended by family and friends. The Masses were held at Edmonton, Hamilton and Vancouver.
